GOOFY GAG

Our favorite golf gag gift of the year is easily the Putt-Her, a “revealing” shot stick that packs a scantily clad punch. Remember those gag pens that, turned one way, would turn up a shapely surprise? Now you’ve got the idea.

A regulation putter that looks unremarkable in the bag, take it out and get ready to sink a twenty-footer and out of the shaft floats a super-sexy image of a bikini-clad young woman.

The Putt-Her as a great gift as well as a good corporate gift idea — company or other logos can be added to the shaft of the putter or to its black, cloth cover. Whatever happens, the array of goodies under the tree for the male golfer this Christmas promises to be just a little bit less mundane.
