Putt-Her Putter

Remember when you found that pen that Grandpa seemingly cherished more than Grandma. (Hey, what's this do?) Well, say hello to the Putt-Her. With the putter head up, it looks pretty much like a standard heel-toe weighted putter. But go into your address position and the black portion in the middle slides down, revealing Angieszka Niewiadowski (man, that was even tough to type!), decked out in, well, not much. $59.95, blueballsports.com.
